Your mission is to undertake a brand new, exciting and authentic combat system using sophisticated gaming guns with infra-red technology - Battlefield Live is outdoor combat gaming at it's best!

BATTLEFIELD LIVE

CORPORATE TEAM BUILDING

CORPORATE TEAM BUILDING FROM THE BOARDROOM TO THE WAR

ROOMPlaying games is good for business, and we specialise in combat games for companies who want to encourage employees to work together. Our events cater from 10 - 300 people, just for your executive team, or your entire company. The old adage "the team that plays together, stays together" rings true.

We take computer games from the keyboard experience to a live, interactive sport. Take your skills from virtual matches into the woods so you and your team can experience the excitement of a Hollywood Blockbuster.

Our MISSIONS promote camaraderie and confidence, with a focus on leadership and communication. No matter what your fitness level, there is a mission for you!

TEAMWORK & PLANNING ... The strong teamwork aspect of Battlefield LIVE helps turn a department into a team.

LEADERSHIP & COMMUNICATION ... What better way to find that natural leader who can motivate personnel whilst commanding respect.

FUN ... Get better results than from those boring conferences or seminars!

BATTLEFIELD LIVE

The state of the art guns are totally safe and are used by the Royal Marine Commandos for combat simulation training. After extensive research the Royal Marines declared these guns as the best of their kind.

Unlike Paintballing, there is no pain or bruising, and no heavy padding or sweaty face masks to wear, the guns are the most realistic simulation, short of joining the military! Gun feedback is in real-time - providing an immediate adrenaline rush with special effects - players are thrilled out of their brains!

Battlefield Live can be enjoyed by all ages, and all combat games mirror military scenarios to ensure an authentic experience. Teamwork is the key to achievement and you will need wits, skill, strategy and stealth to overcome the oppositions.

STEP AWAY FROM REAL LIFE FOR A FEW HOURS AND IMMERS YOURSELF IN THE ULTIMATE GAMING EXPERIENCE THAT IS.... BATTLEFIELD LIVE!
